THE QUESTION.

Old Arizonans occasionally advance the ides of the removal of all Indians from Arisona to some place outside the Territory as a saleguard against future dep redations. This proposition is opposed by barnacles of the mossback family, who see starvation staring them in the face if the Indian is withdrawn from Arizons. for with the transfer of the Apache away would the army march, and the fawning dishrag sycophants, who hang to the coat MOUNTAINS OF THE MION .- Many readers alsy, will report by letter to Major Wintail of a man in uniform for a livelihood, are aware that the mountains and hollows field S.
